California Senator Decides to Launch Initiative for Election.

Claims He will Challenge Gov. Stephens Again on Alleged Letter.

(BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.)

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Cut-in the belief that the Japanese question in California is getting acute, Senator Phelan today announced that he is preparing to leave for Califoragain make his assertion that Gov.

of America.

In a statement issued tonight

Senator Phelan said at the request of several anti-Asian associations and other bodies throughout California, who are about to inaugurate a campaign for initiative legislation on the Japanese civil, he will go to California as soon as his duties in Washington permit. On account of the rapid acquisition of land by the Japanese, Senator Phelan deplores

the failure of the Governor to call an extra session, and has written him again on this subject. The expenses and labor of a campaign can be avoided if the Governor will only act.

In view of the denial by the Japa-

Japanese, Senator Phelan declares

WILSON'S DEF TO EUROPE RESTORES POPULARITY.

New York Forgets Its Wrath Over the Lansing Incident to Cheer Waving of the Bloody Shirt.

BY HARRY CARR. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—In Washington they discuss the effect of Mr. Wilson's performance upon the future statesmanship of the world. In New York they excitedly debate the effect of the Lansing-Wilson controversy upon the next election. For after all it is in New York that Presidents are made and unmade.

There are angles to the fracas that are decidedly amusing. The truth is that both politicians and political newspapers are found stepping gingerly around with bated breath. The uneasy conviction is that the Lansing-Wilson affair, like most domestic quarrels, is loaded with danger for any outsider who tries to butt in.

Politicians are fiercely anxious to make political capital out of the incident, but they are afraid to take sides until they know whether Lansing or Wilson or both, intend to become candidates for the Presidency. They would like to make the worst possible situation out of it if they were convinced they could get Wilson in bad without making a hero of Lansing. On the other hand they are afraid to turn the situation against Lansing, since then it has been fed by Irish politicians.

As a matter of fact, no one has any exact knowledge of just what was in Mr. Wilson's message to Europe in regard to the Adriatic. I honestly believe that his political strength will depend very largely upon the extent of the insult. If, in his note, he treated the foreign offices of England, Italy and France as though they were garbage-wagons on the sidewalk, he will be despised by the vast majority of the people.

So said Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, Oakland, who paid tribute to California's Presidential candidate at the New York banquet given by the Civic Forum.

MILLS COLLEGE PRESIDENT HOLDS TOGETHER 48 HOURS DESPITE TERRIFIC GRINDING AND POUNDING.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—"Mr. Hoover is not only one of America's greatest civilian heroes of the war, but he stands unique as a distinguished man with an unconquerable modesty."

So said Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, Oakland, at the civic forum banquet. Dr. Reinhardt today in an interview reiterated this statement and added many more encomiums of praise for the Californian, who is now considered as the most eligible candidate for the Presidency.

"America is tired of selfish politics. The treaty delay, which is a stench in the nostrils of every real American, has shown that the present-day politicians see only the narrow horizon of selfishness. The time has come for a man to rise, who considers the welfare of America, and does not limit his vision to the Hudson River on the East and the Rockies on the West."

Mr. Hoover is a man without a trace of selfishness. He is a man of breadth, a business man, a thinker, and above all a man whose heart and head can work in unison. The man who saves millions of Europeans from starvation can save his fellow countrymen from the grind of despotism of the present-day politicians and the radicalism of unreasoning labor unions."

Dr. Reinhardt speaks for the women of California, for she brought to Washington, the petition for a speedy ratification of the treaty signed by 10,000 of the women of California, who are thinking women voters. She knows her subject when she says that Hoover is admired by Americans.

SUMMARY OF SIX MAIN POINTS IN ALLIED REPLY TO WILSON NOTE REGARDING ADRIATIC SITUATION

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 19.—A summary of the main points in the Allied reply to President Wilson's Adriatic note, cabled by the Rome correspondent of La Nación, discloses French-French-American treaty establishing security for France, to which the Allies reply that such action would destroy absolutely the "new French policy" for which President Wilson invited protection.

The fundamental points of the reply to President Wilson, the correspondent says, are:

First: The Allies answer the accusation of having prepared a plan for the annexation of Italy to Italy, which presupposes bad faith on Italy's part by saying President Wilson is unable to demonstrate this.

Second: The Italian petition for establishment of territorial continuity with Fiume is a small point by comparison with the question of Dalmatia, which the world is unable to prove by merely examining the map of Europe.

Third: The Allies observe that the project of President Wilson, which comprehends creation of the buffer state, has been rejected by the Jugo-Slavs.

Fourth: The strip of territory necessary to establish the continuity of Fiume with Italy has not sufficient value to justify procrastination in re-establishing peace of Europe.

Fifth: Italy entered the war in-

ATTACKS ON MILLERAND

Say Premier is Too Easy on Germany.

Barthou and Briand Join in Political Effort to Force Resignation.

Large, Well-Armed Teutonic Army in Defiance of Treaty Arouses France.

(BY FLOYD GIBBONS.)

(PARIS, Feb. 19.—There are strong indications that the resignation of M. Jonnart, president of the commission on reparation under the Treaty of Versailles, threatens the downfall of the Millerand government.

The real cause of M. Jonnart's resignation was fear of opposition to the "too lenient attitude of the Supreme Council toward Germany in enforcing the terms of the treaty."

This, coupled with a declaration by Andre Lefevre, Minister of War, that Germany now has a large army well armed in defiance of the treaty provisions, is to be seized upon by the former Premier Barthou in order to bring about the downfall of the Millerand Cabinet, according to political witnesses.

M. Barthou, who is now president of the Foreign Affairs Commission of the Chamber of Deputies, and who is looking with covetous eyes upon the Premiership, has announced that he will interpellate the government.

PRESS AROUSED.

Marcel Cachin, Socialist leader and Deputy, writing in "Humanite," declared that he followed the footsteps of M. Clemenceau in modifying terms for the Germans so that they would present a large army to the Supreme Council.

M. Lefevre, that German now has 420,000 men under arms, when according to the terms of the treaty she should have 100,000. Together with M. Jonnart's resignation is bound to place the Millerand government in a very difficult position when Barthou launches his broadside against the Premier in the Chamber of Deputies.

Politicians, with their ears to the ground, already say they hear that former Premier Briand's confidence in the Millerand government is shaken.

MILLERAND'S PROBLEM.

Meanwhile, Millerand is facing the distrust of his own cabinet, and for the important part of his reparation commission, succeeding M. Jonnart. Millerand offered the job to M. Tardieu, and said that he can get it if M. Barthou wins.

This leaves M. Dutasta, former Minister of the Interior, in a very awkward position, as the next possibility now in sight. It is said he is not strong enough for the job and his appointment would only tend to further weaken the Millerand Cabinet.

LEGAL BATTLE IN
SALE OF LINERS.Supreme Court Grants a Temporary Injunction.Justice Bailey Says President Lacks Power to Act.Payne Will Force Agitator to Furnish Reparation Bond.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Prospect of a legal battle to complicate the controversy over shipping board efforts to dispose of thirty former German passenger liners, appeared today when Associate Justice Bailey of the District of Columbia Supreme Court granted a temporary injunction against the sale on a taxpayer's application filed by William Hearst.

Justice Bailey said that, after a careful examination of the statutes, he was of the opinion that they did not show an intention on the part of the Congress to place in the President or in the Shipping Board the power to sell the ships.

John Barton Payne, chairman of the board, announced that he would recommend appeal proceedings and also an effort to require Mr. Hearst to furnish bond against loss if the ship is sold.

He indicated that the government would fight to the finish for its legal right to proceed with the sale.

Simultaneously Vice-Chairman Stevens of the board, in disagreement with his colleagues as to the wisdom of the sale, continued his testimony before the Senate Commerce Committee. Still another difference of opinion developed, John D. York, Chicago marine engineer.

"Self-Serve Stores"

In the West and South are many "Self-Serve Stores" or groceries.

In stores of this type a woman waits on herself, taking down from the shelves the goods wanted and, after paying as she leaves, carries the groceries home.

There is no clerk, no salesman, and no one to "push the goods."

Here, left to itself, the public always chooses advertised brands. Others can't compete without the aid of personal salesmanship.

People want advertised goods.

Each year an increasing percentage of dealers recognizes that there is little profit in argument and instead, quickly sell what the people want.

Commercially, the public is Court of Final Appeal.

The national advertiser pleads his case direct.

OUTFITTERS OF DEPENDABILITY

contending that the Leviathan, largest of the fleet, could be recon-structed for passenger service only in the yard where she was built in Germany, while Mr. L. H. Hager, engineer for the board, said the work could be done in American yards.

The fundamental question involved in the sale of the ships, Mr. Stevens said, was whether they could be operated as cheaply under the American flag as for foreign service.

The only way we can find that out is for the Shipping Board to sell the ships and operate them for a while," he said. "To sell the ships to American concerns for the amounts offered would be to give an indirect subsidy of millions of dollars and if the same policy were followed with the cargo ships the subsidy would reach billions."

Mr. Stevens said sealed bids received from foreign companies for four ships for transfer to other flags reached double the highest bid by a United States concern in three cases and $500,000 more than the highest American bid on the fourth vessel. The bids were rejected by the board in conformity with its policy not to transfer the ships to other flags.

"Ships are at a premium in the world's markets today and I think it would be the worst possible time to sell," said Mr. Stevens.

ADVOCATES SCRAPPING.

Charles H. Potter of New York, president of the United States Steamship Operators' Association, de-scribed to the committee how govern-ment-built ships were operated by private companies.

"We get $350 a month per vessel on one and one-half per cent. of the gross freight revenue," Mr. Potter said, "with the Shipping Board furnishing the freight. These operators will get only $200 a vessel hereafter and rustle the freight themselves."

Potter expressed the opinion that the Shipping Board tonnage was only about "10 per cent. efficient" and that the committee was advocating scrapping of much of the wood tonnage. On the nine wood vessels assigned to his company, he said, the operation had resulted in a loss.

NEW CONTRACT.

Virtual agreement as to the terms of the new profit-sharing contract was reached between the board and the operators' association.

Mr. Potter said that, after a careful examination of the statutes, he was of the opinion that they did not show an intention on the part of the Congress to place in the President or in the Shipping Board the power to sell the ships.

John Barton Payne, chairman of the board, announced that he would recommend appeal proceedings and also an effort to require Mr. Hearst to furnish bond against loss if the ship is sold.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—Suggestion that former Emperor William be sent to the island of Curacao, off the Venezuelan coast, is being more favorably in some quarters at the Hague, than the idea of transporting him to one of the Dutch East Indies, according to the Matin.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The list of war criminals presented to Germany included some offenders now in the hands of the Allies. Premier Lloyd George informed the House of Commons today. Whether these accused persons would be tried by an Allied court would depend on the reply made by Germany to the recent Allied note, the Premier added.

PAN-GERMANIC REJECT.

BERLIN, Wednesday, Feb. 18.—Examination of the official text of the last Allied note sent to the German government relative to the trial of men accused of war crimes shows that a significant passage was omitted from the Paris version published here on Tuesday afternoon.

This passage refers to a stipulation by the Entente that the previous verdicts at the trials of German war offenders must be annulled, and that they be remanded for new trials.

The conservative Pan-Germanic press, united in rejecting the Allied note as wholly unacceptable, and the Tabulari express the belief that a halting place on the road leading to a revision of the Versailles treaty.

GERMAN OFFICIALS PLEASED.

Gratification that the Entente rejected Germany's contention relative to the physical impossibility of surrendering men accused of violation of the laws of war, was expressed today by a Foreign Office official. He said that it was inevitable that internal chaos would result from such a step, and that the Entente would be so strengthened as the result of the decision reached by the Supreme Council in London.

premise power by the election of a Congress which would submit itself to the orders of an Executive acting at once as a party leader in politics and a dictator in government. It was the instinct of American democracy that repelled the demand.

WILSON'S DEFIANCE.

"The President's defiance of the authority of the Senate to advise upon the covenant of the League of Nations and to give or withhold its consent to the ratification of the treaty containing it," he continued, "was a challenge to the right of any officer of the United States government to exercise his powers in any way which had not the approval of the Chief Executive."

"The treaty," Mr. Root declared, "was fatally defective in several respects, not only from the standpoint of the vital interests of the United States, but considered as an instrument designed to secure the future peace of the world."

"The reservations adopted by the Senate," he insisted, "remedy, as far as the United States is concerned, the chief objections to the treaty. They prevent our entrance into the League of Nations from being an abandonment of the Monroe doctrine, with irreparable injury to the United States and no benefit to the rest of the world."

Especially important, asserted Mr. Root, is that they prevent the "incredible mistake" of Article X, the agreement in that article to prevent war against external aggression, and the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League.

"It is shocking," he said, "to think of the whole people of the United States within its field over matters essential to the life of the community, to the exclusion of any class control in such matters; and second, to exercise that popular control by making and applying such laws and establishing such institutions of government as to secure justice, within the law, to members of every class and calling, so that our system of government will be justified by its works."

"We should not attempt to make any man work against his will, or take away his right to strike," he asserted, "but we should by law limit that right to strike at a point where it comes in conflict with the community's high right of self-preservation."

LABOR TRIBUNAL.

"Inseparably connected with the right of control by the governing people is the duty of justice resting upon them. If the people, by law prohibit organized labor from holding them up to enforce its demands, the people are bound to provide means to enforce its demands. The people are just, and for enforcing them if found just. That duty rests upon the establishment of an impartial tribunal and for the enforcement of its decisions."

"It is true that a political party cannot make individual thrift, but a political party can produce the shining and potent example of the individual and economical government."

ECONOMY REFORM.

Officials and agents of the present administration, he asserted, have acquired the habit of spending public money, and do not know just when to stop. Three things can

24th Anniversary

Chapter One

The Coming of a Man

In the year 1896 there came to the city of Los Angeles a man endowed with foresight, business energy, strong determination. A man of vision, with faith in the future of Los Angeles. Undaunted by previous business experiences which had proved too successful, he saw in this city the place wherein his business dreams were to be realized. Here, then, was to be established a business that was to be based upon an ideal—a business that would insist upon the

Principle of Fair Dealing

A business that should have for its foundation—Truth, Courtesy, Liberality and Value! And now, in 1920—24 years later—we are to celebrate and fittingly commemorate the anniversary and progress of this store—and the success of this man—Arthur Letts, the early founder and President of The Broadway Department Store.

Five days will be given over to this Anniversary Celebration, beginning Monday, February 23, and continuing until Friday, February 27, inclusive. Watch for further details!

ful musician "earning about $100 a year which I thought pretty good for a woman. Alas! When I presented myself to Los Angeles of the woman player. First Managers of the theater, who "colleges" slammed the door in my face. Being born with a talent which I did not want from them, I would change their minds and I believe I was entitled to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" and incidentally to earning on my savings. I went to Los Angeles and I hoped my great love for the city would excite her. I found that the petticoats do not agree when it comes to playing the pipe organ. I also found that as long as I was an idle visitor, spending there and everywhere, I was not hospitable (?) to a fault. I found the workers in that department old Sol, which, by the way, belonged to California, and I was not caring, but as time went on, one's heart grows weary of loneliness of it all. Like the "Six Tourists" letter, I am not a snob. Just a person of age, education, good family, breeding, and in the profession of the "Six Tourists" letter, that is beautiful and to the point, I will soon be compelled to my trunk and go back to the town of 4,000,000 because I am on climate nor without human companionship.

Makes a Correction. LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—Editor of The Times: In an article recently an article in the time Sheriffs contained a paragraph in reference to the Crabb and his company. The scribbler said "Crabb" and his men came to Los Angeles; that was bad; others whipped, driven from town. The truth, according to me, is that Henry A. Crabb, a son of Stockton, and a member of the State Senate, organized an expedition against Sonora, Mex. There Crabb and his company, several men joined. In a battle with the filibusters were defeated after surrendering under a flag that they would be allowed to return to the United States. The massacre. Only one—a Mexican boy—was spared. He was sent back to California to tell of the massacre.

When I first visited this town years ago, I was shown as a friend of the man who had joined the expedition. This man related the incident of the recruiting place—the recruits were men.

Crabb was well connected, married Sonora. Alas! He was a wealthy Spaniard. He came from Victoria, where he had edited a paper. Such a slander on Crabb and members of the company could be allowed to go uncorrected. The scribbler could have had facts from history. Very respectfully, J. M. SCARLETT

PAINTINGS WORTH STUDY.

Who Came to Scoff Now Return to Praise

Splashes of Color on Canvases of Modernist Exhibit at Exposition Park.

BY S. FRED HOGUE.

corresponding to the canvas, and found with not do," he said. "I am not a dark bird in their nests in them."

The beginning of a revo- lution in art that lived in the eyes of the first of the modernists, with the heavy orange shades and the predominant yellows blend with the blue and the green until the very confusion brings a harmony of its own.

Who studies that picture becomes quickly aware that the color scheme was planned by a master of brush and palette. There is nothing suggesting the dilettante. Every stroke expresses a passionate effort.

Wright studied in Paris and Italy for ten years, with a passion as intense that he walked all the way from Paris to Florence where he painted a fresco. He began by star- ving in a Paris garret, and in ten years his pictures were solicited for the salon. And remember, that there is only one "salon" in Paris or in the world.

I was surprised to see on five watercolor sketches of a distinctly Modernist type the signature of John Marin, the great New England etcher, second only to Whistler. There is not an art store, probably, in America or Europe where copies of his etchings are not to be had.

What is this man, who commands $100 for the work of a single afternoon, doing dallying with forecolor? What has caused him to abandon the work of a lifetime and turn to follow the Modernists?

I confess the question remains but half answered. As I looked at his sketches, with their colors that appear, strangely pallid beside the seething tones on canvases by Arthur Dove and Oscar Bluemner, there came to me with a distinct thrill the story of De Leon's fantastic search for the fountain of youth.

Marin in his old age seems to be searching for a lost youth in the lifting fantasies that his wash draughts disclose. But, to me, like the noble Spaniard, he has failed. His watercolors do not possess the freshness that is essential to all enduring work of that class. He started his quest too late in life. He who would follow the Modernist trail cannot wait until he has passed his fiftieth year.

I would like to discuss Arthur Dove's "League of Nations," which, at first glance, makes one think of a sewer pipe in eruption or an oil gusher, but which is worthy of careful study. It is an abstraction, a synchrony that does not lend itself to a concrete subject. There are tones of blue and purple in that picture that other artists have spent a lifetime seeking to attain.

Color as liquid as in woman's eyes radiates from two canal canvases by Oscar Bluemner. They appeal to me as more scintillating than Childe Hassam has been able to produce in his seascapes; but there is something morbid about the waterways and the wooden quays that lessens the beauty of the picture. It seems to suggest a dead body, perhaps that of a woman with tangled seaweed in her hair, floating through the docks. I would not care to sleep in a room with one of those pictures hanging on the wall.

Taken as a whole, the exhibition is one that neither students nor picture lovers should miss. Perhaps this article may give you something of a key to work out for yourself the mystery of those splashes of color which will render you, at first sight, of a highland plaid, an Indian blanket or a Bulgarian scarf.

TO REOPEN OFFICES. Missouri Pacific Prepares for Cession of Federal Control. The Missouri Pacific Railroad will reopen its offices in the Central Building, Sixth and Main streets, March 1, it was announced yesterday.

The local offices of the Missouri Pacific, in common with those of all other railroads, have been closed since May, 1918, on account of government operation of the railroads; but preparatory to the resumption of private operation, the Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific and other lines are making arrangements now to reopen their local offices throughout the country.

POLICE CARS TO BE SPECIALLY MARKED. The City Council yesterday approved the plan of the police department to have special distinguishing marks for police cars, so that they can operate at high speed without being chased by motorcycle riders. The Council ordered the City Attorney to prepare and present the necessary ordinance.

Cousin of "Mayor-Killer" is Divorced. Estate Must Pay Housekeeper $18,000 for Work. High Court Holds Claim "Just and Reasonable."

Affirms Judgment in Favor of Long Beach Bank. In Sacramento, yesterday, the Third District Court of Appeal affirmed the judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles in allowing Miss Etta I. Mayberry a claim for $18,000 against the estate of C. P. Dutton, wealthy Hollywood man, who died in May, 1915.

Miss Mayberry served as Dutton's housekeeper for twenty years without compensation and when she filed her claim for $18,000 against the estate the administrator rejected it and her suit resulted.

It was set up in defense that the evidence was insufficient to support the contention of Miss Mayberry that Dutton agreed he would compensate her for services performed. The court ruled the claim was "just and reasonable."

The district court also affirmed the nonsuit judgment awarded the defendant in the suit of Walter H. Fisher against the Exchange National Bank of Long Beach to recover damages alleged to have resulted from conversion of oil stock. According to the records, on March 16, 1914, Fisher borrowed $2500 from the bank and gave a promissory note, secured by 100 shares of oil stock and an executed contract of pledge.

Fisher failed to pay the note and the bank applied dividends from the stock on the note, it is said. Fisher's suit against the bank followed.

FRIENDSHIP FOR
HOLLAND ASKED SOCIETY.

Dutch Banker Here Seeking Publicity for Nation.

Declares His Country Needs
Sympathy and Interest.

Explains Stand Upon Demand
for Former Kaiser.

Holland needs the world's sympathy, interest and co-operation no less than do some of the other European countries whose bureaus of national publicity have kept them constantly in the public view during the war, while the Dutch nation quietly and bravely plugged along.
This is the word brought to Los Angeles yesterday by Dr. W. M.
Westerman, political economist, banker and representative of the Society for Making Holland Better Known Abroad, who is here on his way to the Orient and the Dutch East Indies, in the interest of Holland and the organization he represents.

Thinking men and women in Holland have realized that their nation has kept its light under a bushel too long, and that the country needs advertising abroad, to tell other nations of Holland's needs, problems, prospects and achievements.
Dr. Westerman said.
"Belgium advertised herself during and after the war, Serbia did, and others, but Holland remained in the background of the world's attention and interest," he explained. "And yet Holland has had difficult problems to solve, and work to do. Hers was not an easy part.
For years after the outbreak of the war she was criticized for her dealing with Germany, and the criticism was unjust. Holland was neutral—had to be neutral. She had to sell her products, because she is not a self-supporting country, and needed coal and iron. She had to grant extensive credits to Germany, and now, if Germany is bankrupt, these will be a loss."

The Dutch government is not at all interested in the Kaiser, the visitor declared, but it is interested in the preservation of its national traditions and the right of the government to preserve its treaty privileges, and the demand for the surrender of the Kaiser brings these questions up for a decision on broad national grounds. The entire matter is distasteful to the government, Dr. Westerman said, but it must be settled, and cannot be disposed of on sentimental or expedient grounds.
From here Dr. Westerman plans to go to San Francisco, then to Japan, China and the East Indies.

PASTOR CALLS FAITH
CURING SUGGESTION.

BACKGROUND OF IT ALL WISH
TO BE WELL, SELECTION
SAYS IN LECTURE.

The background of all faith healing is the intense desire of the patients to be cured of their illness.
Rev. Charles C. Seelman declared last night at the First Methodist Church, South, of Hollywood, in his lecture on "Faith Curing." He declared that he would not discourage sick people from praying, but he believes they should combine their prayers with the best medical and surgical advice obtainable.
"Blessed people will resort to anything," the minister stated. "They will go to any climate, take any kind of medicine, submit to major surgical operations and believe anything to secure relief from their ailments.
There have been many kinds of faith healers and most people who pose as healers are more or less fakers."
He declared his opinion that most faith cures are the result of suggestion.

BLOW OF AUTO LEADS TO ARREST AS THIEF.

THINGS FOUND IN POCKET OF CAR'S VICTIM SEEM TO BE LARCENY EVIDENCE.

An automobile accident in which he was injured last night proved to be doubly hard luck for Joe Sidler, a tailor, 43 years old, of 2923
Francis avenue. After he was taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment of a possible fracture of his right knee he was held in the County Hospital on suspicion of petty larceny. Detective Sergeant Burges and Gamash found in his pocket etc. numerous small articles which the tailor is suspected of having stolen from a notion store.
Sidler's hard luck commenced when he was run down at Tenth and Flower street by an automobile driven by John McConis, the attorney, of 968 North Madison avenue, Pasadena. Police investigation showed the accident was unavoidable.

KILLED IN AUTO CRASH.

Mechanic Loses Life Towing Los Angeles Doctor's Car.

William Willets, 30 years of age,
who lived at the Hotel Metropole, Long Beach, was killed last night while guiding a tow-car, which was bringing to Los Angeles the disabled auto of Dr. J. W. Murphy of 2426 Magnolia avenue. Willets, who was employed by a Long Beach garage as a mechanic, was called to a point on the Long Beach-Los Angeles boulevard where he attached the towing line to the Murphy machine.
When near Huntington Park an auto crashed into Willets's machine and killed him. The victim's body is at the Huntington Park morgue.

LADS HELD AS ROBBERS.

William Rose and Harold Kleckner, each 19 years of age, were committed to the County Jail yesterday by Justice Hanly in lieu of $10,000 bail. The youths are accused of having robbed Arthur Kern of a wallet valued at $2, a pen valued at $5 and $4 in cash, on the 11th inst. According to the statement of the officers who arrested the two, the youths have been implicated in about eleven other robberies. Their hearing was set for next Friday.

FLASHES.

TEARLE IS FEATURED.

NAT SPITZER ANNOUNCES NEW DOUBLE STAR CONCERN.

By Grace Kingsley.
Two big starring units, sponsored by Nat N. Spitzer, were announced yesterday. The luminaries of these two companies are none other than Conway Tearle, who up to this date has been known merely as a leading man, but whose growing popularity has quite naturally landed him in the star class, and Ora Carewe, who lately has been starring in her own company, and who began her career as a Mack Sennett beauty.

These companies will be independent of Mr. Spitzer's interest in the Bullseye Corporation, and the release of their pictures will be through a large distributing company. A number of offers for releases have been made and are now under consideration. Associated with Mr. Spitzer in the venture is Charles G. Husted, manager of the Texas Guinan and the Edythe Sterling companies, and also production manager for Republic Distributing Corporation.

The photographs to be made by these two will be film versions of well-known novels and plays, and already negotiations are under way for the purchase of three of the best-known stories of the present day. The productions will be made here and also in the East, as the locale of the stories demand change of scene. Western productions will probably be made at the Bullseye studio in Hollywood. Directors and casts are now being selected. It is likely that Adele Rowland, Mr. Tearle's wife, and famous on stage, may play leading roles with Mr. Tearle.

Ray Buys Cohan Comedy.

"Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," George M. Cohan's famous musical comedy, success is to come a film. The purchaser of the rights thereto is Charles Ray, who will make this his first feature under his National Exhibitors contract. Ray paid $50,000 for the picture rights to the piece. Jerome Storm will direct, and work will be commenced early in March.

Charles Ray's appearance in sophisticated comedy is a big change in his film career. Evidently he is rather tired of the John Gardennas roles. Whether he intends to quit them entirely or not, he doesn't say. Probably not, however, as he is immensely popular in that sort of part. It is possible he may go to New York for "atmosphere" for his new production.

Nazimova Bulletin.

Mme. Alla Nazimova, Metro star, is busy these days even if she isn't working before the camera. She is busy with her home redecoration, and any lady who chances to read these words knows what that means. She and her husband, Charles, are in, in fact, living in two rooms while the rest of the house is being made over. But being very much devoted to each other, of course, they don't mind.

The next feature in which Nazimova will appear will be a version of the French story, "L'Homme Riche," on the scenario of which Charles Bryant is at present at work. Ray Smallwood will direct.

Madeline Travers's Offer.

Madeline Travers, Fox star, is the recipient of two large offers which came to her during the present week, from certain important picture concerns. Her present contract with Fox, however, precludes her considering them at present, but at least one of them is to be held over.

Mme. Marceline Levas.

Mme. Klotia Marceline, formerly well known in film circles here, has returned to her home in Belgium, her mission being to bring her mother to this country. The mother, it seems, lost all her fortune in the war, and underwent great hardships in fact, the actress, receiving word, had given her mother up for dead. Mme. Marceline had just completed negotiations for an appearance with Charles Chaplin in his comedies when she received word that her mother was alive, and so decided to go home.

Ben Turpin Film.

Ben Turpin, the Mack Sennett comedian, who can't make a mistake, is now on his way to his old home, New Orleans, to visit his parents there.

Cupid Bulletin No. 9999.

In the cupid corner of this department I wish to record two weddings, news of which has just leaked out. One of these is the marriage of Jerry Dean, daughter of Mrs. Juanita Pollock of Hollywood, who yesterday was wed to Harry K. Evans of Chicago. Mrs. Evans was formerly with the Leaky company, but is now touring one of the vaudeville circuits. Following the completion of her tour, she and her husband will take a trip to Australia, Japan and London.

The other marriage referred to is that of Hal Headley, scenario writer at Universal, who has just been wed to Violet Shannon. Miss Shannon has been touring with the Royal Italian Sextette and is well known in musical circles. She will leave the stage.

William de Mille Soon.

On his return from New York, where he is now engaged in obtaining material, and where he is holding conference with heads of Famous Players-Lasky, William de Mille will start work on his next production, "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," by Leonard Merrick. The cast is not yet announced.

Wally Reid's New One.

Wally Reid will finish "Sick Abed" this week under Sam Wood's direction and will start shooting immediately on "Too Much Speed," story and scenario by Byron Morgan, with Sam Wood again directing.

Anita Stewart Has Birthday.

Anita Stewart celebrated her birthday Tuesday, by donning a blond wig and a wonderful pearl gown, and working under the lights all day as proprietress of a Shanghai gambling hall, the background of certain recent pictures. "The Yellow Typhoon," now being made by Edward Jose.

A holiday touch was given the occasion by the presentation to Miss Stewart of a big, snow-white birthday cake. The candles on it shone brightly, telling her, puffed twenty-three years.

May Allison Doesn't Care.

Rainbow at Santa Barbara, May Allison and her company are spending their days at the Potter amusement place, as best they can, while they wait for the weather to clear up so they can make the scenes for "The Classics." The Allison

SHE MIGHT BE A BACCHANTE.

But This is not Her Usual Headdress.

Viola Dana.

Who had troubles plenty with the item of Japanese coiffure in making "The Willow Tree," which, in the film version, plays at Miller's Theatre next week.

Low Brice Holds Record.

Low Brice, at the Orpheum, is probably the only man who went to Europe in the A.E.F. as a soldier and returned as an entertainer. Lew was all through St. Mihiel, Belle Wood and the Argonne, and was in the very front line before Metz when the armistice was signed. He was thereupon detached from active service and sent with a theatrical troupe to Coblenz with the American forces. There he entertained both German and American soldiers, together with most of the fighting lads.

Bessie Love to Leave.

Bessie Love, star of the A. J. Callaghan Company, is going up to San Francisco next week to make some scenes for her current picture, Margaret Ettinger of the New York Telegraph is going to stop being strenuous for a day or two and accompany her.

Holubar Will Take Hike.

Tramping the hills for a fortnight is the way Allen Holubar is going to get himself into shape for the making of his next picture, whatever it may be. He is going to take a long hike, and is set free to accept an offer which he wants very much to take.

William Duncan Has Vacation.

Camping in tents far up in the Santa Monica Mountains was the late yesterday of William Duncan and his supporting company, who sought shelter from the downpour of rain, and on don't get much chance to take the necessary scenes for Duncan's Vitaphone serial, "The Silent Avenger."

Frank Mayo Will Take Trip.

Frank Mayo, Universal star, is planning a trip to Honolulu, the conclusion of his current production, "The Girl in 29." Mayo expects to be gone about four weeks. He expects to come home loaded with Hawaiian trophies for all his friends. Also he anticipates being an authority on the hula by that time.

MAYO ANSWERS WIFE.

Says Charge of Friendship for Film Actress Caused Him Anguish.
In his cross-complaint to the separate maintenance suit of Joyce Eleanor Mayo, Frank L. Mayo sets up that his wife caused him mental suffering by her accusations concerning his associations with Miss Dagmar Godowsky. The latter has pending a $15,000 suit for libel against Mrs. Mayo. Mr. Mayo says his wife is unreasonably jealous. He alleges he did not spend large sums of money entertaining the members of the film company with which he is connected.

APPOINTMENT INFORMED.

The Public Welfare Committee of the City Council yesterday recommended the confirmation of the Mayor's appointment of Dr. Julius Lincoln as a member of the Social Service Commission, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Harry J. McLean. This recommendation will go before the Council this morning.

EXEMPTIONS FOR THEM.

Internal Revenue Collector Carter has received a number of inquiries from men in active army or navy service regarding the exemptions to which they are entitled in the filing of income tax returns. Soldiers and sailors, as such, are not exempt from tax, but the law exempts that portion of their income received as compensation from the United States up to $150 in any taxable year. This exemption is in addition to the allowance of $1000 and $2000, according to their marital status.

Persons who left the military or naval service during 1919, and whose income, other than the amount paid to them by the government equaled or exceeded $1000 or $2000, must file a return by March 15. The tax is on incomes in excess of these amounts. Forms for reporting such income may be secured of Collector Carter.

John Hand Recital.

John Hand, tenor, will be heard in recital tonight at the Ebell Club House. The concert will be under the auspices of the Matinee Musical Club. This is Mr. Hand's first appearance here.

First Pupils' Recital.

The first of a series of recitals to be given by the pupils of John Smallman, harpist, and Vernon Spencer, pianist, took place last evening at the Ebell Club House, the young musicians performing to an audience of moderate size. Jessie Lucile Gibbs, soprano, and Harl McDonald, pianist, were assisted in the symphony concert today.

The Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will give a concert today at Clune's Auditorium. Mana Zucca will be soloist, and the feature work on the program will be the Symphonic Opus by Riesenfeld. Adolf Tandler will conduct.

comprehensive and interesting program by Jay Fiove, flutist of the Philharmonic Orchestra, and Mrs. Halbert Thomas, a well-known pianist prominent member of the Wa-Wan Club.

Miss Gibbs has a clear and sympathetic soprano voice, and her production is quite sure and adequate. She will, when she has attained more confidence, present a distinctly enjoyable style of singing. Her numbers included the works of the old master, Handel, the "Caro Nome" from Verdi's "Rigoletto" and an Arabesque and a concert version of the "Arkansas Traveler," which were programmed "McDonald," and which include an intelligent taste in composition.

The pianist played from Grieg, Mozart, Haydn, Schumann, Chopin and MacDowell.

The next concert of the series will take place on February 26.

Gentle with Opera.

The success of Alice Gentle, the gifted mezzo-soprano, who is to be heard here next week with the San Carlo Opera Company at the Mason Opera House, has been quite as brilliant as it has been rapid. A Western girl, she was fortunate in attracting the attention of the late Oscar Hammerstein, who delighted in discovering latent talent and exploiting it to the mutual advantage of the artist and his company. He gave Gentle, then a girl not yet 20, opportunity in small parts at the Hammerstein Opera House, and one night she was unexpectedly asked to substitute for an indisposed Carmen. Her success was not only immediate, but sensational; like Gail-Curtis she awoke the next morning to find her work the talk of New York.

After the Hammerstein season she went abroad to study, secured a series of appearances at the La Scala, Italy, and returned to America, joining the Metropolitan, the pinnacle of all opera singers' desires.

California Musical Programme.

In conjunction with the world premiere of the picture from John Fox's popular story, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," in which Jack Pickford is starred, at the California Theatre next week, managing director, Robert Poole, announces that an exceptional musical programme will be given. An elaborate prologue, staged in a manner establishing the theme of the story and its locale, the Cumberland Mountains of Kentucky, is expected to prove one of the most appealing of any so far seen at the theatre. The principal musical numbers will be rendered by the California Theatre Sextette, directed by Camillo Engel, and include "Loves Old Sweet Song," "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Dixie." Among the musicians are Carolyn Carillo, Bernice Smith, Mabel Latham, Pearl Bates, Erlene Lee, and Florence Burdick.

The California Orchestra, Williams conducting, will render as the overture, "The Red Mill," the popular light opera composition by Victor Herbert.

Symphony Concert Today.

The Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will give a concert today at Clune's Auditorium. Mana Zucca will be soloist, and the feature work on the program will be the Symphonic Opus by Riesenfeld. Adolf Tandler will conduct.

RULE-OR-BURN SUSPECT HELD

Lodge Long-Wanted German in County Jail Here.

Believed Power in Arm Branch of the I.W.W.

Will Ask Washington War for His Deportation.

Suspected of being a power in the "rule or burn" branch of the I.W.W., Paul Andreas Luder was lodged in the County Jail yesterday by Immigration Agent Sweet and is being held for deportation.

Luder was a member of the group of men who tried to force a strike on a Santa Fe passenger train last November. He was released yesterday morning after a three-month sentence in the San Bernardino County Jail.

Luder is a resident of Sioux City, Iowa, and is a native of Germany. He was born in Waukegan, Ill. From there he came to Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee and a score of other cities where he was actively engaged with the I.W.W. element, according to statements of the officials.

He was a member of the "rule or burn" branch of the I.W.W. in the German liner Hamburg, which was wrecked in 1917. He was deported the ship and was released in 1918. From there he came to Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee and a score of other cities where he was actively engaged with the I.W.W. element, according to statements of the officials.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Business on the stock exchange today lacked the breadth and activity of recent sessions until the final hour, when bulls again guided the list to higher levels at extreme gains of 3 to 5 points.

Gains were not confined to that section, however, the Pacific and standard coals also displaying conspicuous activity and strength under lead of Canadian Pacific. Reading and shares of the bituminous roads.

Developments were favorable, comprising continued ease of demand loans, the marked strength of exchange, especially the London rate, and increased dividends declared by representative companies.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

banks and exchanges will be closed on Monday, the 22nd.

Collars are Higher.

Not the styles, but the cost. Thirty cents in the going price now. The increase is 2 cents. The pre-war price for white collars of three and four ply linen was two for a quarter. The quality of the 28-cent collar is said to be much inferior. Dealers anticipate a growing demand for soft collars, which may be purchased for 50 cents, have a longer life, and may be laundered at the home tub.

An Infant Industry.

According to Charles F. O'Neill, who was asked yesterday for something good in oil, the industry is in its infancy, and production of all grades is being rapidly increased. Mr. O'Neill is an operator in Desdemona, Tex., president of the Texas Clover Oil Company, and naturally particularly interested in the development in that section. The North Central Texas oil fields, he says, contain more drilling rigs than at any previous time. In Desdemona alone, 151 rigs are now working, with 140 new locations made. Practically all of these wells will be completed by June 1, and their average production is expected to add 180,000 barrels daily to the present output. This year predicts that the gross production in the United States for 1920 will be 1,200,000,000 barrels. He expects the high gravity oils to sell at $4 per barrel. "Oil is oil to most people," he said, "but the operators appreciate the great financial and economic differences. Texas, for instance, produces both the asphalt and asphalt base oils. The asphalt oil sells at Desdemona for $3 per barrel, while the asphalt base sells for $1.15 in Beaumont. Therefore, a 1000-barrel well in Desdemona will pay $1250 a day more than a 1000-barrel well will pay in asphalt base oils. Desdemona is a busy town of 15,000 population; prior to 1917 it was an almost unknown hamlet of seventy-five people, surrounded by small farms."

Railroads Out for Business.

A changed order in the railroad world impends. There is a grinding of loins and a sharpening of wits, for there is to be a battle royal for passenger and freight business as soon as the roads are turned back to the owners. As the rates are fixed this business must be secured because of superior inducement offered by one carrier over another, and officials admit that the struggle will inevitably result in better service to the traveling and shipping public. Under government operation the distribution of business has been arbitrary and some roads have received more than their share. Operating economies are being planned which will reduce expenses at the same time increasing efficiency. This has been a lost art under Federal control. Railroad stocks are being viewed with increasing interest by the professional trader and the investing public who are beginning to feel that the 60-foot level, the greatest bargains are to be found in this group. As soon as the present slump is over rails are likely to come again into their own.

The Whitley Plan.

The Whitley plan of joint industrial councils is an English application which appears to be growing in favor. It aims at permanent industrial amity largely through giving employees a direct voice in determining working conditions, and also by bringing together employers and employees at regular intervals for consultation about their mutual interests. It has already been introduced into fifty-one industries in Great Britain with a total of 1,300,000 employees.

Silver King Resumes Activity.

The silver king of Arizona Mining Company, which has been one of the world's greatest silver producers, has resumed operations around the old workings at the 610-foot level. An excerpt from a notice being sent to the stockholders says that a new shaft has been completed to the 610-foot level, where a vein of silver was encountered assaying 188 ounces of silver to the ton. Some of this was native silver and the vein showed a tendency to widen in the No. 3 east stop, forty feet from the old workings in virgin ground. Seventy feet above the 600-foot level, a new body of ore was encountered ten feet in width and assaying 28.8 ounces of silver to the ton. Five feet of this is said to be high-grade, and to assay 126 ounces to the ton.

Back to the Farm.

Upon the cost of food largely rests the question of industrial wages, and the prosperity of all manufacturing and all other business. Indeed, upon food rests the whole question of the nation's prosperity, and of increased or lessened Socialistic-Bolshevik agitation. Back, therefore, to the farm run all the problems of the hour in politics, in business and in finance, and every thoughtful man, whatever may be his position or line of business, recognizes that one of the supreme questions of the hour is the production of foodstuffs and the relation of the price of food to the prosperity of the country.—

[Manufacturer's Record.]

The American Cow Abroad.

The American cow is keeping company with the American pig in its invasion of the world markets. A statement by the National City Bank of New York a few weeks ago showed that the American pig is rapidly capturing the food markets of the world, and it now appears that the American cow is keeping it company. A further statement by the bank, covering the world activities of the American cow, shows that nearly 1,000,000 pounds of condensed milk were sent out of the United States in 1919 at an export value of about $125,000,000, and that it was distributed to no less than ninety countries, colonies and islands of the world. The quantity of condensed milk sent out of the country in 1919 is, says the bank's statement, fifty times as much as in the year preceding the war, and the value nearly 100 times as much.

Late Ticker Ticks.

Dow Jones—Rate-making section of railroad bill requires Interstate Commerce Commission to adopt rates allowing 5 1/2 per cent. return and may allow one-half of 1 per cent. extra in expenditures on capital account. Reduction in employee wages prohibited for six months.

Conference report on railroad bill to be called up in House Saturday and debate limited to five hours. Reported in banking circles that the offering of government tax certificates of independence probably will be announced around March 15, running for twelve months at 5 per cent.

Copper imports in United States in 1919 30,000,000 pounds less than in 1918. Steel trade organs in weekly review of trade say the industry has made for some degree of caution, but manufacturers expect that it will be only temporary. Bank of England rate unchanged at 4 per cent.

Standard Oil of Indiana grants wage increase of 11 per cent. and shortens hours of refinery workers. New schedule was worked out by employees themselves. Twenty industrials, 94.44, up 0.88. Twenty rails, 78.05, up 0.34.

At the normal rate of exchange, the same bond would cost, delivered here, about $195.

1. Drawings, semi-annually and annually, respectively, at 150%
2. Possibility of full profit of exchange on:

(a) Capital invested. (b) Redemption premium. (c) Yield

The following table shows the possible profit to be obtained from the ownership of a 1000 franc bond on the basis of exchange gradually returning to normal in six years:

Period	Value of Franc in cents	Original Cost per 1000 Francs	Value If Drawn at 150%	Profit on Original Investment	Income in Dollars During Period	Combined Profit and Income	Yield If Drawn at 150%	Yield If Drawn at Maturity

*French bonds redeemed. Belgian bonds redeemed.

We suggest considering these issues on account of the above features, which enable investors not only to obtain the full profit on the return of exchange to normal, but also to secure a substantial increase of the capital originally invested through the semi-annual and annual drawings at 150%. We urge these investments as a means to improve the exchanges, which to our commerce and industry is of the greatest and most vital importance at this very moment.
